PEACE ESTABLISHMENTS.—PART II.

EXPLANATORY NOTES.

A.—Headquarters.

The detail of the additional personnel required on mobilization is shown on pages 8 and 9.

With the exception of the numbers to be found from the Yeomanry and A.S.C., the numbers required have been added to the peace establishment of certain units selected by G.Os.C.-in-C. They will be administered in all respects by those units and will, as a rule, only join the Headquarters when the Division or Mounted Brigade trains as a whole.

The selected R.A., R.E., and Infantry units are shown under their own area and the numbers to be found are shown in special columns.

As regards the Yeomanry and A.S.C., the numbers so required are included in the establishment of their Regiment, or T. and S. Column.

The names of officers holding appointments mentioned on pages 6 and 7 will be shown in the Army List.

Any alteration of the names of such officers should be notified to the War Office as soon as possible for correction in the Army List.

TRAINING.

The units to train the additional personnel of Artillery, Engineers, and Infantry will be selected by the divisional commander.

The A.S.C. drivers will be trained as follows :—

For the Headquarters Division, Divisional Artillery and Divisional Engineers.—By the Headquarters company of the Divisional T. and S. Column.

For the Headquarters, Mounted Brigade.—By the Mounted Brigade T. and S. Column.

For the Headquarters, Infantry Brigade.—By the company from which they are detached on mobilization.

B.—Horses and Vehicles Allowed for Training.

When the number of men attending camp falls below the full establishment, the allowance of horses and vehicles allowed for training will be reduced proportionately.
